

Now then ... where do we go from here?

Simsbury Dialogue on the War in Iraq

Democracy means that citizens dialogue on the important matters of the day.
If democracy is good for Iraq ... then it must be good for America too!

February 14th

March 14th

7:30-9:30 PM, Boy Scout Hall, 695 Hopmeadow St, Simsbury

A series of three evening forums are scheduled for January, February and March to explore the War in Iraq from the perspective of Simsbury and Farmington Valley area residents. Each of the forums will consist of panelists who will present a range of positions from supportive of the current policy to opposed to current policy. A moderator will be used to keep the discussing moving forward and will accept and direct questions from the floor. Simsbury Public Television will be invited to re-broadcast these forums. Audio can be heard at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

The proposed agenda is outlined below:

First Forum (January 10th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Statements from each of the panel participants on what are the goals of the current involvement in Iraq are and what the United States involvement should be:

- The relevance of terrorism / relevance of oil
- What are the economic interests of the United States in the Middle East
- Strong or weak central government in Iraq
- US Military and Political Influence among Middle East leaders
- How is the US presence making the situation better

Audio Now Available at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

Second Forum (February 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum plus:

- What is the meaning of the word “democracy” we use so frequently
- US Support for “democracy” throughout the Middle East
- Definition of the words “Free” and “Freedom” as applied to Iraq
- Terrorism as a “police” problem vs. a “military” problem
- Iran’s right to safe and secure national borders

Third Forum (March 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum:

- Patriot Act and its impact on Civil Liberties
- Role of torture in US foreign policy and meaning of “enemy combatants”
- Role of Military Recruiting in Schools
- Where do we as a country go from here
- Resolution of common ground to be presented to the Simsbury Board of Selectmen

For more information visit www.hopeoutloud.org or contact Wayne Coste at (860) 651-1600. Invitations will be offered to private citizens, elected officials, veterans, members of emergency services, high school students and others ... or add a constructive comment in the forum at www.simsbury.com .

Sponsored by: The Connecticut Coalition For Peace and Justice (CCPJ)
The Central Connecticut Chapter of Veterans for Peace

Other sponsors and endorsers are invited

Now then ... where do we go from here?

Simsbury Dialogue on the War in Iraq

Democracy means that citizens dialogue on the important matters of the day.
If democracy is good for Iraq ... then it must be good for America too!

February 14th

March 14th

7:30-9:30 PM, Boy Scout Hall, 695 Hopmeadow St, Simsbury

A series of three evening forums are scheduled for January, February and March to explore the War in Iraq from the perspective of Simsbury and Farmington Valley area residents. Each of the forums will consist of panelists who will present a range of positions from supportive of the current policy to opposed to current policy. A moderator will be used to keep the discussing moving forward and will accept and direct questions from the floor. Simsbury Public Television will be invited to re-broadcast these forums. Audio can be heard at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

The proposed agenda is outlined below:

First Forum (January 10th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Statements from each of the panel participants on what are the goals of the current involvement in Iraq are and what the United States involvement should be:

- The relevance of terrorism / relevance of oil
- What are the economic interests of the United States in the Middle East
- Strong or weak central government in Iraq
- US Military and Political Influence among Middle East leaders
- How is the US presence making the situation better

Audio Now Available at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

Second Forum (February 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum plus:

- What is the meaning of the word “democracy” we use so frequently
- US Support for “democracy” throughout the Middle East
- Definition of the words “Free” and “Freedom” as applied to Iraq
- Terrorism as a “police” problem vs. a “military” problem
- Iran’s right to safe and secure national borders

Third Forum (March 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum:

- Patriot Act and its impact on Civil Liberties
- Role of torture in US foreign policy and meaning of “enemy combatants”
- Role of Military Recruiting in Schools
- Where do we as a country go from here
- Resolution of common ground to be presented to the Simsbury Board of Selectmen

For more information visit www.hopeoutloud.org or contact Wayne Coste at (860) 651-1600. Invitations will be offered to private citizens, elected officials, veterans, members of emergency services, high school students and others ... or add a constructive comment in the forum at www.simsbury.com .

Sponsored by: The Connecticut Coalition For Peace and Justice (CCPJ)
The Central Connecticut Chapter of Veterans for Peace

Other sponsors and endorsers are invited

Now then ... where do we go from here?

Simsbury Dialogue on the War in Iraq

Democracy means that citizens dialogue on the important matters of the day.
If democracy is good for Iraq ... then it must be good for America too!

February 14th

March 14th

7:30-9:30 PM, Boy Scout Hall, 695 Hopmeadow St, Simsbury

A series of three evening forums are scheduled for January, February and March to explore the War in Iraq from the perspective of Simsbury and Farmington Valley area residents. Each of the forums will consist of panelists who will present a range of positions from supportive of the current policy to opposed to current policy. A moderator will be used to keep the discussing moving forward and will accept and direct questions from the floor. Simsbury Public Television will be invited to re-broadcast these forums. Audio can be heard at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

The proposed agenda is outlined below:

First Forum (January 10th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Statements from each of the panel participants on what are the goals of the current involvement in Iraq are and what the United States involvement should be:

- The relevance of terrorism / relevance of oil
- What are the economic interests of the United States in the Middle East
- Strong or weak central government in Iraq
- US Military and Political Influence among Middle East leaders
- How is the US presence making the situation better

Audio Now Available at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

Second Forum (February 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum plus:

- What is the meaning of the word “democracy” we use so frequently
- US Support for “democracy” throughout the Middle East
- Definition of the words “Free” and “Freedom” as applied to Iraq
- Terrorism as a “police” problem vs. a “military” problem
- Iran’s right to safe and secure national borders

Third Forum (March 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum:

- Patriot Act and its impact on Civil Liberties
- Role of torture in US foreign policy and meaning of “enemy combatants”
- Role of Military Recruiting in Schools
- Where do we as a country go from here
- Resolution of common ground to be presented to the Simsbury Board of Selectmen

For more information visit www.hopeoutloud.org or contact Wayne Coste at (860) 651-1600. Invitations will be offered to private citizens, elected officials, veterans, members of emergency services, high school students and others ... or add a constructive comment in the forum at www.simsbury.com .

Sponsored by: The Connecticut Coalition For Peace and Justice (CCPJ)
The Central Connecticut Chapter of Veterans for Peace

Other sponsors and endorsers are invited

Now then ... where do we go from here?

Simsbury Dialogue on the War in Iraq

Democracy means that citizens dialogue on the important matters of the day.
If democracy is good for Iraq ... then it must be good for America too!

February 14th

March 14th

7:30-9:30 PM, Boy Scout Hall, 695 Hopmeadow St, Simsbury

A series of three evening forums are scheduled for January, February and March to explore the War in Iraq from the perspective of Simsbury and Farmington Valley area residents. Each of the forums will consist of panelists who will present a range of positions from supportive of the current policy to opposed to current policy. A moderator will be used to keep the discussing moving forward and will accept and direct questions from the floor. Simsbury Public Television will be invited to re-broadcast these forums. Audio can be heard at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

The proposed agenda is outlined below:

First Forum (January 10th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Statements from each of the panel participants on what are the goals of the current involvement in Iraq are and what the United States involvement should be:

- The relevance of terrorism / relevance of oil
- What are the economic interests of the United States in the Middle East
- Strong or weak central government in Iraq
- US Military and Political Influence among Middle East leaders
- How is the US presence making the situation better

Audio Now Available at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

Second Forum (February 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum plus:

- What is the meaning of the word “democracy” we use so frequently
- US Support for “democracy” throughout the Middle East
- Definition of the words “Free” and “Freedom” as applied to Iraq
- Terrorism as a “police” problem vs. a “military” problem
- Iran’s right to safe and secure national borders

Third Forum (March 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum:

- Patriot Act and its impact on Civil Liberties
- Role of torture in US foreign policy and meaning of “enemy combatants”
- Role of Military Recruiting in Schools
- Where do we as a country go from here
- Resolution of common ground to be presented to the Simsbury Board of Selectmen

For more information visit www.hopeoutloud.org or contact Wayne Coste at (860) 651-1600. Invitations will be offered to private citizens, elected officials, veterans, members of emergency services, high school students and others ... or add a constructive comment in the forum at www.simsbury.com .

Sponsored by: The Connecticut Coalition For Peace and Justice (CCPJ)
The Central Connecticut Chapter of Veterans for Peace

Other sponsors and endorsers are invited

Now then ... where do we go from here?

Simsbury Dialogue on the War in Iraq

Democracy means that citizens dialogue on the important matters of the day.
If democracy is good for Iraq ... then it must be good for America too!

February 14th

March 14th

7:30-9:30 PM, Boy Scout Hall, 695 Hopmeadow St, Simsbury

A series of three evening forums are scheduled for January, February and March to explore the War in Iraq from the perspective of Simsbury and Farmington Valley area residents. Each of the forums will consist of panelists who will present a range of positions from supportive of the current policy to opposed to current policy. A moderator will be used to keep the discussing moving forward and will accept and direct questions from the floor. Simsbury Public Television will be invited to re-broadcast these forums. Audio can be heard at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

The proposed agenda is outlined below:

First Forum (January 10th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Statements from each of the panel participants on what are the goals of the current involvement in Iraq are and what the United States involvement should be:

- The relevance of terrorism / relevance of oil
- What are the economic interests of the United States in the Middle East
- Strong or weak central government in Iraq
- US Military and Political Influence among Middle East leaders
- How is the US presence making the situation better

Audio Now Available at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

Second Forum (February 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum plus:

- What is the meaning of the word “democracy” we use so frequently
- US Support for “democracy” throughout the Middle East
- Definition of the words “Free” and “Freedom” as applied to Iraq
- Terrorism as a “police” problem vs. a “military” problem
- Iran’s right to safe and secure national borders

Third Forum (March 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum:

- Patriot Act and its impact on Civil Liberties
- Role of torture in US foreign policy and meaning of “enemy combatants”
- Role of Military Recruiting in Schools
- Where do we as a country go from here
- Resolution of common ground to be presented to the Simsbury Board of Selectmen

For more information visit www.hopeoutloud.org or contact Wayne Coste at (860) 651-1600. Invitations will be offered to private citizens, elected officials, veterans, members of emergency services, high school students and others ... or add a constructive comment in the forum at www.simsbury.com .

Sponsored by: The Connecticut Coalition For Peace and Justice (CCPJ)
The Central Connecticut Chapter of Veterans for Peace

Other sponsors and endorsers are invited

Now then ... where do we go from here?

Simsbury Dialogue on the War in Iraq

Democracy means that citizens dialogue on the important matters of the day.
If democracy is good for Iraq ... then it must be good for America too!

February 14th

March 14th

7:30-9:30 PM, Boy Scout Hall, 695 Hopmeadow St, Simsbury

A series of three evening forums are scheduled for January, February and March to explore the War in Iraq from the perspective of Simsbury and Farmington Valley area residents. Each of the forums will consist of panelists who will present a range of positions from supportive of the current policy to opposed to current policy. A moderator will be used to keep the discussing moving forward and will accept and direct questions from the floor. Simsbury Public Television will be invited to re-broadcast these forums. Audio can be heard at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

The proposed agenda is outlined below:

First Forum (January 10th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Statements from each of the panel participants on what are the goals of the current involvement in Iraq are and what the United States involvement should be:

- The relevance of terrorism / relevance of oil
- What are the economic interests of the United States in the Middle East
- Strong or weak central government in Iraq
- US Military and Political Influence among Middle East leaders
- How is the US presence making the situation better

Audio Now Available at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

Second Forum (February 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum plus:

- What is the meaning of the word “democracy” we use so frequently
- US Support for “democracy” throughout the Middle East
- Definition of the words “Free” and “Freedom” as applied to Iraq
- Terrorism as a “police” problem vs. a “military” problem
- Iran’s right to safe and secure national borders

Third Forum (March 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum:

- Patriot Act and its impact on Civil Liberties
- Role of torture in US foreign policy and meaning of “enemy combatants”
- Role of Military Recruiting in Schools
- Where do we as a country go from here
- Resolution of common ground to be presented to the Simsbury Board of Selectmen

For more information visit www.hopeoutloud.org or contact Wayne Coste at (860) 651-1600. Invitations will be offered to private citizens, elected officials, veterans, members of emergency services, high school students and others ... or add a constructive comment in the forum at www.simsbury.com .

Sponsored by: The Connecticut Coalition For Peace and Justice (CCPJ)
The Central Connecticut Chapter of Veterans for Peace

Other sponsors and endorsers are invited

Now then ... where do we go from here?

Simsbury Dialogue on the War in Iraq

Democracy means that citizens dialogue on the important matters of the day.
If democracy is good for Iraq ... then it must be good for America too!

February 14th

March 14th

7:30-9:30 PM, Boy Scout Hall, 695 Hopmeadow St, Simsbury

A series of three evening forums are scheduled for January, February and March to explore the War in Iraq from the perspective of Simsbury and Farmington Valley area residents. Each of the forums will consist of panelists who will present a range of positions from supportive of the current policy to opposed to current policy. A moderator will be used to keep the discussing moving forward and will accept and direct questions from the floor. Simsbury Public Television will be invited to re-broadcast these forums. Audio can be heard at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

The proposed agenda is outlined below:

First Forum (January 10th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Statements from each of the panel participants on what are the goals of the current involvement in Iraq are and what the United States involvement should be:

- The relevance of terrorism / relevance of oil
- What are the economic interests of the United States in the Middle East
- Strong or weak central government in Iraq
- US Military and Political Influence among Middle East leaders
- How is the US presence making the situation better

Audio Now Available at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

Second Forum (February 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum plus:

- What is the meaning of the word “democracy” we use so frequently
- US Support for “democracy” throughout the Middle East
- Definition of the words “Free” and “Freedom” as applied to Iraq
- Terrorism as a “police” problem vs. a “military” problem
- Iran’s right to safe and secure national borders

Third Forum (March 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum:

- Patriot Act and its impact on Civil Liberties
- Role of torture in US foreign policy and meaning of “enemy combatants”
- Role of Military Recruiting in Schools
- Where do we as a country go from here
- Resolution of common ground to be presented to the Simsbury Board of Selectmen

For more information visit www.hopeoutloud.org or contact Wayne Coste at (860) 651-1600. Invitations will be offered to private citizens, elected officials, veterans, members of emergency services, high school students and others ... or add a constructive comment in the forum at www.simsbury.com .

Sponsored by: The Connecticut Coalition For Peace and Justice (CCPJ)
The Central Connecticut Chapter of Veterans for Peace

Other sponsors and endorsers are invited

Now then ... where do we go from here?

Simsbury Dialogue on the War in Iraq

Democracy means that citizens dialogue on the important matters of the day.
If democracy is good for Iraq ... then it must be good for America too!

February 14th

March 14th

7:30-9:30 PM, Boy Scout Hall, 695 Hopmeadow St, Simsbury

A series of three evening forums are scheduled for January, February and March to explore the War in Iraq from the perspective of Simsbury and Farmington Valley area residents. Each of the forums will consist of panelists who will present a range of positions from supportive of the current policy to opposed to current policy. A moderator will be used to keep the discussing moving forward and will accept and direct questions from the floor. Simsbury Public Television will be invited to re-broadcast these forums. Audio can be heard at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

The proposed agenda is outlined below:

First Forum (January 10th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Statements from each of the panel participants on what are the goals of the current involvement in Iraq are and what the United States involvement should be:

- The relevance of terrorism / relevance of oil
- What are the economic interests of the United States in the Middle East
- Strong or weak central government in Iraq
- US Military and Political Influence among Middle East leaders
- How is the US presence making the situation better

Audio Now Available at www.hopeoutloud.org/simsbury\_audio.html

Second Forum (February 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum plus:

- What is the meaning of the word “democracy” we use so frequently
- US Support for “democracy” throughout the Middle East
- Definition of the words “Free” and “Freedom” as applied to Iraq
- Terrorism as a “police” problem vs. a “military” problem
- Iran’s right to safe and secure national borders

Third Forum (March 14th 7:30 – 9:30 at Boy Scout Hall, Simsbury)

Follow-up of disputed information from the previous forum:

- Patriot Act and its impact on Civil Liberties
- Role of torture in US foreign policy and meaning of “enemy combatants”
- Role of Military Recruiting in Schools
- Where do we as a country go from here
- Resolution of common ground to be presented to the Simsbury Board of Selectmen

For more information visit www.hopeoutloud.org or contact Wayne Coste at (860) 651-1600. Invitations will be offered to private citizens, elected officials, veterans, members of emergency services, high school students and others ... or add a constructive comment in the forum at www.simsbury.com .

Sponsored by: The Connecticut Coalition For Peace and Justice (CCPJ)
The Central Connecticut Chapter of Veterans for Peace

Other sponsors and endorsers are invited